THE MOTHER BOY AND GIRL

Latter Makes An Ideal Wife, Former Makes a Moody Husband

In a household where there are several boys or where there are boys and girls some one in the circle is the one altogether lovely from the father or mother but observing visiting friends to the household to day the fact is forcibly drawn

It is a common impression that a mother may treat whether boy or girl and soon it becomes aware of his or her importance at home To adapt a common expression the only child is always spoiled and it is not always the only child

To return to the first statement does the favorite boy in a household of boys make a better husband than the girl and is the favorite girl and the sort of girl that he is supposed to be courted she marries him In point of mother wisdom should a favorite daughter be more than the favorite boy of a family such a thing is best and

In a home of boys the favorite is mother's boy The other boys are not envious of his claim to affection Unless the favorite is an exception to the rule he is in the estimation of his brothers an immaterial consideration The question may not be is he just at the favorite carries the hair lamp all his life or at least until he is under the paternal control and under the maternal influence Generally the favorite brother is the first to have a sweetheart The other brothers charge his up to the mother If the ... the girl has been picked by the mother all the greater favorite is with his mother One of the inconsistencies of the situation is that this favorite is not always the youngest boy of the family If the last born collects any of his brothers traits you may be sure that he is not the favorite

When comes the time for the favorite to stand before the altar as the recipient of a wedding ceremony which the family can bestow This is not strange for the first marriage in a family is the event of events especially where the affair is with family approval When the wedding is over the rainbows season begins and the two can enter upon the period where better and worse not on the common level then the friends of the family will visit and wait to see if the match will not be the best ever made

There seems to be an unwritten law that by which a newly married couple to eliminate their ... friends

BIG SAW MILL BURNS

Mountain Creek Feb 1 The Mulberry Lumber Company saw mill and part of lumber yard just south of Mountain Creek was totally destroyed by fire at midnight tonight

Most of the lumber probably will be saved but as it is the loss is heavy amounting up in the thousands of dollars

At this time the actual loss can not be estimated as the fire is still burning It is reported that the large mill is covered by insurance But how the fire originated is a mystery

ON GRADING A SUNDAY SCHOOL

Paper Read by Prof J V Brown to the Teahers Meeting

In grading a Sunday School it is conceded by the best authority that there are some difficulties to be encountered which are not met with in the public schools For instance lack of authority poorly adapted building unqualified teachers and inadequate facilities In spite of all this every Sunday School may be graded

Grading is the arrangement of pupils in a school into departments and classes in such a way that children and youth may be classified according to ... and attainment These should be in charge of teachers and others who are suited to their needs ... the officers and teachers ... with the view to the ... of each department ... they ought to remain ... pupils will be ... from class to class ... grade to grade

There are five essentials in grading

Divisions into Departments and Classes

Departmental Organization

Superintendent of Classification

Adaptation of Teachers

Regular Promotions

The divisions into Departments and Classes

Every pupil falls into three departments First the children who cannot read or who can read but little Second those who are fully grown Third those who are between these two extremes usually known as the Intermediate Department

Effective grading has to do ... specially with the first and middle classes and includes pupils from the time they enter school until sixteen years of age

The following basis of grading is in successful operation in many schools

I Primary Department including all under nine years of age This may be subdivided as follows

A Cradle Roll babies who can not attend the school These should be enrolled and recorded members the right not counted distinctly as to the public as others

B Beginners for the ... children who can attend regularly those three four ... years of age

C Primary for children from ... to nine years

II Junior Department including pupils of ten eleven and twelve years of age

III Intermediate Department including children from fourteen and fifteen years

IV Young Peoples Department including children sixteen seventeen and eighteen years

V Adult Department includes all over eighteen years of age This department includes if possible one class for men and another for women in addition to the mixed classes It is recommended that every old members have a comfortable and convenient corner in the building provided with comfortable chairs and large print Bible

VI Home Department for those who cannot attend Sunday School but who will agree to study the Sunday School lessons to prepare a record of their work

VII The Teacher Training Department includes those taking a special course of training prepara

The top spinners of today are the top notchers of tomorrow

If there is not enough variety to this paper turn in to the wants

Man's extremity is where the wife comes in and asks why he don't do so and so for it

Weather is a handy topic often wring in to break the ice when conversation lags for lack of subject

The height of folly is when you jump on the hat after you have caught it and try to stamp the life out of it

Forethought is that accident where the brain, wandering around idle stumbles up on what you want It may not occur again in a hundred years

We never discovered the excellent flavor and the refreshing qualities of this Dothan water till the pipes got tied up the other day with the cold weather

Don't let your dignity keep you from hot footing it up to the Coast Line tomorrow at eleven, to see Willie It may be some time before he's this close to us again

Taft and his corps of engineers have looked over the situation down at Panama and say there is no fault in the dam foundations It is only a few weeks ago that Mr Taft's religion had to be explained, too

Secretary Straus and some prominent labor leaders are now preparing to make a study of the unemployed It strikes us that this would have been an interesting study had it been taken up several months ago, say before the election

Mr Peter Keary, of London writes for sample copy of the Eagle and rates for advertising as he no doubt did several hundred other papers, but he's too far off for us to fool with and besides we don't enter to foreign advertisers anyway

When one has toiled and labored, and sweated, and fumed trying to write an impressive editorial, and then finds his subscribers lokoing down the editorial column seeing who's in town todas and why, he feels that it takes all kinds of readers to make a newspaper, as well as a world

If talking machines typewriters adding machines and other inventions are improved on during the next twenty years as they have during the last few years, there will be small need of a man using a soft Faber, or his Falcon except just in making his mark

The Dothan people who have never seen the Peerless Leader can go up to the Coast Line train Wednesday at eleven o'clock, and they may get a chance to see him stick his bald head out and make a few remarks The train always stops five or ten minutes anyway and it would be well to utilize this time listening to a few remarks from Mr Bryan, as it may be several years before he visits Dothan again

We hadn't had winter weather in so long that many of our people couldn't find the cut off to their water pipes, and therefore had to pay an able bodied, but willing, plumber to find it for them before they could stop the water from running yesterday morning when the pipes began to thaw Yesterday was a pretty busy day for the plumbers and no one thought it crime to do a little work just before church or after Those who might have formerly held on only in their hearts to say of the plumber let up is inside

HE HAD BETTER TAKE IT

Some circus people have discovered what they think to be a unworked mine They have made President Roosevelt an offer that makes the magazine offer look like a side show and a cheap patent medicine affair This new aggregation of circus folks propose to give the ex President as soon as he becomes an ex President a contracting salary of $100 000 for thirty weeks engagement In round dollars $10 000 per week All he will have to do is to ride at the head of a procession of "Rough Riders" something like the Col Cody stunt and Col Cody art Don't know that he will even required to shoot up an Indian Five weeks of the kind of business puts the regular stars in the shade and living close and cutting in every day he could manage to save a good deal of that salary

By the time the President spend a year in Africa getting scratched up by tigers lions and brambles his services would be worth three hundred thousand dollars to the circus people even for a five years' contract and he will likely miss the cream of business tramping over the hot sands of the Orient He had better close with them now

BIG PRIZE

The Pennsylvania Legislature has before it a bill offering a prize of $50 000 for a cure for tuberculosis The prize is a magnificent one and will doubtless stimulate investigation The winner of it would have a comfortable fortune at hand But is it likely that the offer of even so handsome an honorarium will have the effect of producing the desired "cure?" The brainest medical men do not work for cash alone They look to the benefit to the race that may accrue from their researches If a doctor were to find a specific for consumption he would give the benefit of it to mankind without one cent of compensation just as quickly as he would give it for $50 000 Savannah News

THE CHEERFUL CAPTAIN

By Mary F B Hutchinson

There was once a captain jolly and gay,
Who'd dropped his old anchor in many a bay
And sailed his old craft over many a sea,
No mortal was more philosopha than he

I've heard this old captain quite often declare,
"Tis useless my mates for to grumble and swear
So when the winds raged he just whistled a tune,
Feeling sure things would calmer become pretty soon

And when a dead calm made his vessel stand still
He whistled that same little tune with a will,
He said he "calculated" he'd soon raise a breeze
And the wind sure enough soon made "landlubbers" sneeze!

Sometimes he grew homesick for wife, lad and lass,
So he whistled that tune to make time quickly pass
He whistled "in furren parts" when he felt sad,
He whistled when home, because then he felt glad

And as we all travel o'er life's troubled sea,
Why won't this same rule work for you and for me?
Let's whistle the storm clouds all quickly away,
And whistle in sunshine, because we feel gay

HUNGARIAN ORCHESTRA

"The concert last evening at the Music Hall, by the Royal Hungarian Orchestra, was one of the finest of its kind ever given in this city Twelve numbers were on the program, but, by round after round of applause, the audience heard twenty The encores were even more enthusiastic than the regular parts The program of the combination is characterized by pure inspiration coupled with interpretation and perfect unanimity Boston Herald

Of all the concerts that I have attended I know of but two that have left the deep impression on people that I feel I can come home and Boston the Hub of the universe in music and literary culture Now these two I feel I can place in the category and know a good thing when they hear it You see they had only enough to make an hour and a half and so the audience only enjoyed from the first number to the last by round after round of applause Had the program of fifty or twenty number been given they will do that much for Peaton Dothan will pay the same compliment if they come and musicians as they are the music lovers of our city will not let them leave the town without the best encores and in every of the entertainment is in store for all who attend their performance at the Elite The first Thursday evening at eight o clock

After Number six the Royal Hungarian Orchestra will present to you an artist's picture in music Your special attention is called to that number Description Tableau Grossmutterchen (Grandma) It starts with a bass violin solo accompanied very softly by the strings an echo by one of the first violins and response by another first violin This is the introduction Next Grandmother starts to rock the cradle in order to put the little baby to sleep singing simple and very softly The naughty little tot wakes up and sings along with grandma (Duet or two violins) The voice of Grandmother then becomes a little louder and after singing a full stream of entrancing melody it gradually dies out until the child falls asleep and Grandma falls asleep also The finishes with a soft chimney chord

GROUND HOG DAY OR CANDLEMAS DAY

Yesterday was Candlemas Day or as it is more commonly called Ground Hog Day

It is on this day and date that the ground hog is supposed to emerge from his hole in the ground and look around and decide whether or not he must remain out or go back and wait further for a change of winter weather to that of spring If the ground hog sees his shadow, he knows that winter is still on and that he must return for a season If he finds it warm and cloudy he at once decides that spring is nigh at hand So to learn if the cold is over just wait and hear what the ground hog did yesterday

It is from England Germany and Scotland though that the Ground Hog day custom comes There the day is observed as one of celebration in some parts but mostly a day for weather prognostications Many of the rhymes that one hears about the day are from the English and the Scotch In Scotland on this day it is a custom for children to bring presents to the teacher Each tries to rival the other in the amount of the gift and the boy and girl that give the most costly ones are hailed as king and queen School is then dismissed and the children march through the village streets carrying the king and queen upon their shoulders.

FAVOR CENTRAL BANK

Washington D C Feb 1 A central bank of issue for the United States will be the recommendation of the first national monetary commission, it is now believed

The postal savings bank bill has little if any chance of enactment at this session

Senator Aldrich who probably knows more about finance than any other member of the senate has always favored a central bank He is a member of the commission which has been studying at first hand the monetary and banking system of the various civilized nations of the world with the idea of perfecting America's patchwork system

Senator Aldrich has practically notified Senator Carter that his postal savings bank bill is dead Any minor change in the present financial laws will be fought until a comprehensive change is effected By this process it is expected that branches of the central bank will do away with the necessity for branch posal banks

Grading of Sunday Schools

tory to be coming teachers in the this department though it should be largely composed of young people especially selected because of their interest in the work and their fitness for teaching They should as a definite pledge that they will become teachers when their services are needed upon completion of their course

Basis of Classification While the basis of departmental division is fixed it is not wholly so A scholar is usually classified at those of about his own age but because he is just so old but I have children of a given age commonly found studying the same lessons in the day school In some schools children are given a written test It is very difficult to accomplish uniform results by the exclusive use of a mental standard in grading

Second Essential Departmental Organization Each department of the school should have its own equipment with as many as units as are necessary Then follows to be to maintain the good work of the departments or classes in interest and enthusiasm see that the teachers are especially adapted and qualified for work in that department and do all in their power to add to its efficiency In small schools this superintendent of the departments may also be a teacher and an extra officer may not be needed Nevertheless there should be some person in each department whether teacher or otherwise who is familiar with the grading and the needs of the department in every particular and whose special business it should be to determine what class each new applicant should enter

Third Essential A Superintendent of Classification It is one thing to grade a Sunday School and another thing to keep it graded It will be readily observed that if teachers enroll in their classes any one who may happen to apply for membership bring their friends promiscuously into their own classes the system of grading will soon be broken down and in an nothing There must be a superintendent of classification who alone shall have authority to classify the scholars This classification however, refers to department rather than to class For instance a new scholar applies for membership the superintendent of classification will readily discover by questioning in which department this scholar should be enrolled the scholar then is presented to the superintendent of the department who will know at once in which class of the department the scholar should be enrolled

Mr Lawrence says there are graded and well graded but have noted lost their attendance in less time even in a class because of failure at the point In many schools all new scholars are enrolled in a class in which they remain until it is definitely known where they should be properly classified or whether or not they will become permanent members Grading is a continuous process and must be constantly watched

Fourth Essential in Grading Adaption of Teachers This is the pivotal point in grading The teachers in any department should be specially qualified or well in that department In the day school we have teachers especially fitted for primary work and would fail in the high school The reverse is true of the teacher suited she should be placed in the grammar grades Having found a teacher especially adapted to a given department she should remain in the department and not pass from one department to the next with the pupils No matter what the bond of affection between the teachers and scholars may be In other words graded schools should have a graded teacher

Fifth Essential There should be a regular promotion day once a year On this day all scholars should be promoted except those in the adult department It will be observed that there are three years to be spent in each of the above department beginning with the primary and ending with the young peoples' Those in the first year of any department should be promoted to the second those in the second to the third those in the third to the first year of the next higher department Teachers may advance with their class from one year to another in the same department if it is best but not from one department to another The promotion should involve a change of seats if possible A given number of seats may be known as the location of each department reserved year by year for that department In this way each child changes his seat and room once a year

This plan can be carried out in a school that meets in one room class of each year in each department Promotion should be made one of the prominent features of the school Special services should be conducted on promotion day by the pastor and superintendents Many schools have a custom of presenting each child with a Bible as he leaves the primary department Certificates of promotion may also be given when each child is promoted
